

James Alan Fox, Ph.D., is The Lipman Family Professor of Criminal Justice and former dean at Northeastern University in Boston. He has published 15 books, including his two newest, The Will to Kill: Making Sense of Senseless Murder, and Extreme Killing: Understanding Serial and Mass Murder. He has also published dozens of journal and magazine articles and newspaper columns.

As an authority on homicide, he appears regularly on national television and radio programs, including the Today Show, Meet the Press, Dateline, 20/20, 48 Hours and Oprah, and is frequently interviewed by the press.

Dr. Fox often gives lectures and expert testimony, including appearances before the United States Congress, and White House meetings with President and Mrs. Clinton and Vice President Gore on youth violence. He served on President Clinton's advisory committee on school shootings, and a Department of Education Expert Panel on Safe, Disciplined and Drug-Free Schools.

Dr. Fox has served as a visiting fellow with the Bureau of Justice Statistics of the U.S. Department of Justice, and an NBC News Analyst.

Visit www.jamesalanfox.com to view a video clip of Professor Fox delivering a speech.

To book James Alan Fox as a speaker, call Anadon Communications at (781) 784-8617 or email speakers@anadonpr.com

Dr. James Alan Fox
College of Criminal Justice
Northeastern University
Boston, MA 02115
Phone: (617) 373-3296
Web: www.jamesalanfox.com
email: j.fox@neu.edu

James Alan Fox

America's foremost criminologist will speak to your group, putting today's headlines into perspective

"The Dean of Death..." Fox is arguably the nation's leading criminologist."

— USA Today

Professor Fox appears on NBC's "Meet the Press," November 2002.

Serial Killers

“Most serial killers have never distinguished themselves in their careers or their family lives. The thing that makes them so dangerous is that these guys are extraordinarily ordinary.”

Youth and School Violence

“It has been more than five years since Columbine, and... we have begun to understand the frustration and anger experienced by unhappy young misfits who are routinely picked on by their classmates.”

Workplace Violence

“Attempts to identify the potentially violent employee can make matters worse by targeting already marginalized workers. Companies must strive to humanize the entire corporate culture.”

American Terror

“Most terrorism is homegrown—pathological, not political. Rather than overinvesting in wasteful security measures, we can do more to reduce the social factors that inspire marginalized Americans.”

‘Dr. Fox took the audience for a ride they won’t soon forget....’

‘Dr. Fox’s dynamic style was riveting and the material compelling.’

Book Professor Fox to speak to your group

Take advantage of a unique opportunity to visit with Jamie Fox to discuss the ever-changing landscape of American criminal justice. Dr. Fox will lead an intriguing — and surprisingly humorous — conversational journey on today’s most compelling issues: terrorism, youth and school violence, our nation’s growing fascination with forensic science and crime, capital punishment or gun control.

To book James Alan Fox as a speaker, call Anadon Communications at (781) 784-8617 or email speakers@anadonpr.com

Dubbed the “Dean of Death” by USA Today, Professor Fox is a fascinating speaker who regularly appears on national television.

- A nationally-recognized expert in the areas of serial murder, youth violence and workplace homicide
- A professor of criminal justice at Northeastern University (and the former dean of the College of Criminal Justice)
- An in-demand speaker who has addressed scores of groups, including civic organizations, White House and Congressional audiences, business round tables, community town halls, university organizations and religious congregations

What they say about Professor Fox

James Fox’s thought-provoking speech on serial killers was extremely entertaining and captured the audience’s attention. Dr. Fox did a wonderful job; I am still hearing great comments.

— Katie Connolly
Adams State College
Alamosa, Colorado

Dr. Fox’s dynamic style was riveting and the material compelling.

— Merryl Sackin
Greenfield Community College
Greenfield, Massachusetts

Dr. Fox took the audience for a ride they won’t soon forget. His topic “Lessons from the Schoolyard” really hit home.

— Sarah Kay Baumann
Southwest State University
Marshall, Minnesota

Dr. Fox’s lecture was a great success. We had one of the best turnouts ever for a lecture presentation. Dr. Fox kept the audience totally interested the entire time. I actually had to limit questions because there was too little time. Dr. Fox was a wonderful person to work with.

— Dan Fischer
University of South Dakota
Vermillion, South Dakota

As seen in...

